University of Michigan Office of Research
Faculty Grants & Awards: Publication Subvention
Proposal Guidelines

OVERVIEW
The U-M Office of Research (UMOR) offers support for research, scholarship, and creative activities in all fields. The focus of the Publication Subvention funding program is to assist in the costs of manuscript publication. Subventions are considered particularly appropriate in cases where publication costs are unusually high due to artwork, maps, photographs, and other special production elements.

UMOR funds are not intended to cover the total cost of the project, but rather to complement other internal support, and to address important needs not met by other support programs within or outside the University. Funds are awarded on a competitive basis and are not guaranteed. UMOR will not provide funds for translation, page or reprint costs of articles in professional journals, or routine author activities such as indexing.

ELIGIBILITY
Instructional and Research Faculty, Librarians, Curators, and Archivists may apply. Research Investigators, Lecturers, and students are not currently eligible. Applicants are limited to one UMOR award per fiscal year. A new award will not be granted if a prior UMOR award is still ongoing. Exceptions may be granted in extraordinary situations with prior approval.

EVALUATION CRITERIA
A Faculty Grants & Awards Panel Member will review the proposals received and provide recommendations.

Key considerations during review include:
• Scholarly merit
• Value for the applicant’s own research potential and progress
• Productivity and qualifications of the applicant
• Likely impact of this work on the field
• Benefit to, or potential to enhance, the scholarly distinction of U-M
• Appropriateness of the budget
• Extent of unit support as indicated by matching funds

All awards are subject to the availability of funds. Junior faculty, as well as those that have not received prior UMOR funding will be given priority.
